LOUISVILLE – This summer, educational theatre company Drama by George is putting the “live” back in “live theatre” as most of our drama camps meet in person! We’ll follow CDC and state guidelines for pandemic safety, including masking and social distancing.

Aspiring thespians ages 5-16 will have the chance to develop their acting skills and perform in a play, building self-confidence and creativity in any of our five awesome summer camps.

- NEW: Spotlight Drama Camp. One of the coolest things about theatre is that you can learn a lot by playing games! We’ll explore everything from pantomime (acting without words) to finding your character’s motivation with fun virtual activities. For ages 8-11, tuition $89. ONLINE June 21-25, 2021: 9:30-11:00 am daily.
- Center Stage Drama Camp. Want to be in the spotlight? Learn basic acting skills and perform a short play in just one week! For ages 8-12, tuition $169. IN PERSON at Bellarmine University June 28-July 2, 2021: 9:00 am-12:00 pm daily.
- NEW: Exploring Drama Camp. Practice skills that every actor needs, from exercising your imagination to creating a character, on your way to preparing a fun performance for your parents! For ages 5-7, tuition $169. IN PERSON at Bellarmine University July 5-9, 2021: 9:00 am-12:00 pm daily.
- Advanced Center Stage Drama Camp. Take your skills to the next level in this camp for experienced young actors! You’ll learn more about theatre and perform a one-act play. For ages 11-14, tuition $369. IN PERSON at Bellarmine University July 12-23, 2021: 9:00 am-3:30 pm Mon.-Fri.
- Comedy Improv Camp. Learn the basics of comedic acting without a script. We’ll show you the funny at Comedy Improv Camp! For ages 13-16, tuition $169. IN PERSON at Bellarmine University July 26-30, 2021: 9:00 am-12:00 pm daily.

Drama by George is dedicated to growing students with compassion and character through the power of stories.
